Social Equality aspect of Justice in Religion

Friday 22 October 2021
6:15pm to 7:45pm

While we are still in a global pandemic, we have started to hear about food insecurity, energy shortages, climate change, race inequalities, women's rights, me too movements, and a raft of political upheavals; all of these circumstances are creating a sense of social injustice for the ordinary people. What does faith teach us about social Justice and how can we influence those in power, and around us, to follow the guidance given in the Holy Scriptures.

We will hear from 3 distinguished religious scholars from Christianity, Sikh community and Islam
